The Rise of Documentary Festivals: A Historical Approach
May 30th, 2020 - Abstract: This chapter offers a historical account of the presence of documentary at film festivals since the 1930s, drawing from the periodization proposed by Marijke de Valck. It analyzes four different phases characterized by:
1. A significant presence of documentary at major festivals and the appearance of the first documentary festivals (1930s-1960s).
2. The emergence of thematic sections within documentary films (1960s-1980s).
